THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 3, 1879.

It is now an open secret that some members of the Opium Farm Kongsees have declared war against the new Farmer, and that hostilities are being carried on with vigour in various directions. Our Singapore contemporary has more than once alluded to the fact that the new Opium Farmer of this Colony has not as yet succeeded so fully as he had been led to expect, and the same authority has given, as the reason for this, a split amongst the old and new members of the Company. If all that is rumoured be correct, the initial expenses of the new Farm have been unusually large, and probably this is an additional reason why the returns have not been so satisfactory to the monopolist. It is generally supposed, however, that the Government are fully alive to the present situation of affairs, and will not fail to use every means to assist the rightful holder of the monopoly. As the competition against which the new Farmer finds himself compelled to fight is a formidable one, and as the Government undertook to place every facility in the way of the man who accepted the new tender, the heartiest aid which the Executive can give is nothing more than a right which may be fairly claimed. It is also stated that much more smuggling of the drug exists than has been hitherto supposed, and strong efforts are being made to put a stop to this serious infringement of the Opium Farmer's privileges. It will therefore be readily seen that the present monopolist has a somewhat burdensome duty imposed upon him, under existing conditions; and that, although the Supreme Court has pronounced in his favour on the question of Opium dress, his troubles are by no means ended, while his opponents have many strings to their bow. We observe in the San Francisco papers that more stringent measures are being taken at that and other Pacific ports for checking the unprincipled people who surreptitiously pass opium into these ports. The smugglers, says the Bulletin, with an ingenuity that knew not the meaning of the word "fail," would invent a new means of landing the drug as soon as the old dodge was discovered, and the Customs Officers—i.e., we presume, those who did not share in the spoil—were at their wits' end. A new regulation, to take effect from the 1st day of August, had therefore been issued, to the effect that every half-pound box of all prepared opium would in future bear a customs stamp; that the stamp was to be so affixed that it must be broken or defaced on the opening of the package; and that each package was to bear the date, names of the Customs officer, of the vessel, of the importer, and of the port. This applies, of course, to the smuggling in of opium into Pacific ports; but as the trade from this port to California is known to be very large, these measures may have a salutary effect on the illicit shippers at this end. The Opium Farmer deserves every encouragement at all times, and more especially so at present, when he pays a large rent and has to contend with so many difficulties.

The papers by the City of Peking give signs that the political contest of parties has already commenced in the States. In our darkened state as to American politics, it would be a convenience if the newspaper organs of one party (say the Democratic) were stamped with a big, big "D," and those of the other party showed a big, big "R." Not that there is any lack of emphatic individuality about the papers of either party; but their use of strong language is so nearly alike that it is hard to say which is which, or who has the best of it. It is, however, the opinion of the New York Tribune that, "if there is a break in the Republican ranks anywhere it is too microscopic to be seen by the naked eye." Of course the above quotation is annexed from a thoroughly Republican source; and we make this explanation because it contains yet another expression of opinion that may or may not be deserving of consideration. We refer to the paragraph quoted below concerning the Seward prosecution; and as the Democratic element has been generally credited with the resurrection of this scandal, the following highly-flavoured titbit from a Republican organ may not be out of place:—

The Washington Post says that it is understood at the State Department that Minister Geo. F. Seward will resign the Chinese Mission in the hopes of heading off impeachment proceedings. While his resignation, as the shortest cut to getting rid of a public functionary of very doubtful odor, would be gladly received by the country he disgraces, he can only expect that a surrender of his commission in the face of impeachment, and for the purposes of avoiding it, will be looked upon as tantamount to a confession of guilt.

THE CAPE.

LONDON, September 1.

Despatches from the Cape, dated the 12th August, state that General Wolseley with Clarke's column has reached Ulundi, and that Russell's column has arrived at Entilo, which place he is fortifying.

The surrounding country is reported quiet, and the Zulus have dispersed to their homes.

Negotiations were still going on with the principal chiefs in Cetewayo's vicinity, who have promised submission.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The next INDIAN MALES are now due by the steamer Ventes.

The next ENGLISH MAIL may be expected here on Friday next, the 5th inst., by the P. & O. steamer Khiva.

The Sherard Osborne and the Conquest have gone round to Aberdeen docks to be cleaned and painted.

We learn that the English mail left Singapore at 1 p.m. on Saturday last, and the Agent does not expect her until Friday at the earliest.

We are requested to state that, weather permitting, the Band Promenade fixed for last evening will be held this evening in the Botanical Gardens, from 9 to 11 o'clock. The same arrangements hold good.

The new steamer Zephyr, which has till to-day been lying at Yow-mah-ti, was towed over to Sands' Slip this afternoon, to be cleaned and painted, prior to being placed on her intended service. She will be commanded by Captain Conner, formerly of the Flora McDonald, of this port.

The case of Fraser-Smith v. Emanuel, some proceedings in connection with which were given in our report of the Summary Jurisdiction Court yesterday, has been fixed for Saturday, when it will be heard before a Special Jury, the efforts to secure a quiet settlement out of Court having been ineffectual.

It is a good sign for the H. K. Cricket Club when the genial Hon. Secretary can become facetious in his report of the past season. He has undoubtedly some reason to be well satisfied with the flourishing state of the Club; and we are glad that it is so. Hongkong has not yet, as is said to have been done in Singapore, abandoned cricket for tennis, although the latter ladies' or summer game has not been altogether forgotten. "The finances," says the Committee's statement, "may be considered in a satisfactory condition, considering the work undertaken and completed during the recess."

According to the list given, the members are more numerous than they have ever been—about 150—after making allowances for those absent from the Colony. The great material success of the season has been, of course, the re-turfing of the ground and paying for the erection of a new Pavilion; for aiding in which, by the way, the Surveyor General comes in for a very neat compliment. Altogether the Cricket Club is in a very healthy state, and the Committee

It is affirmed, that the E. I. Railway has had to construct a short line for through traffic, and the Indian Government, but for the fact that it would have run the line through from Nagpur to Calcutta, a saving of 600 miles. Again, I memorialised the Government in 1865. In making the extension of the Eastern Bengal into Assam the Government should bear in mind that at no very distant date India would become the highway to the East. That memorial led to a survey being ordered, which terminated in the Margary murder, and the matter has, for the present, dropped; but at no very distant period—say ten years—a journey in the far East will be able to get home in 25 days comfortably. The line from Assam to the China sea must be made, and at no very remote date. Some 700 miles are already open, and it only wants a little of the old lion heart, to bring our Indian Empire in direct communication with the China sea. The money and men are ready; all that is wanting is the will, or perhaps I might write eccuse.

MAIL NEWS.

THROUGH the courtesy of Capt. Gulland of the Glencoe, which arrived here this afternoon, we have files of the English papers up to a week later than those to hand by the French mail, (that is, up to August 1st.) We hold over the main portion of our English news, however, and make room to-night only for the Straits Times telegraphic summary from Indian papers.

London, Aug. 15.—Sir Stafford Northcote, replying to a question, said that in consequence of the great excitement prevailing on either side of the frontiers of the thesauri and Epirus, both the Turkish and Greek Governments had deemed it advisable to strengthen their forces there. He added that the British Government did not consider it necessary to take notice of this step.

The retirement of Court Andrasay into private life is confirmed.

Mr. Grant Duff, in the House of Commons, moved for the production of further papers relating to the Afghan war, and in doing so predicted that the treaty concluded with Yakob Khan would give rise to future complications. The Marquis of Hartington concurred in these remarks and criticised the Viceroy's despatch of 7th July, because the country was inadequately informed hereof of our future policy. Mr. Stanhope defended the treaty, and said its chief object was to exclude foreign interference in Afghanistan. Sir Stafford Northcote maintained that the settlement with Afghanistan was the best that could be attained, not only on political but on military grounds. He condemned the criticisms of the Liberal party and their suggestions of difficulties without proposing any alternative policy. The debate, which was a long one, was eventually stopped by the House being counted out.

The promulgation at Cairo of the Sultan's firman investing Prince Tewfik with the privileges enjoyed by the late Khedive, has been received very enthusiastically.

London, August 15.—Parliament was prorogued to-day by Her Majesty. In her speech from the throne she says:—"My relations with foreign Powers continue cordial. I shall employ all my influence to maintain treaty obligations and promote general peace. The conditions of the Berlin Treaty have been faithfully executed and the frontiers nearly settled. The calamities of war have precluded the execution of reforms by the Turkish Government, the necessity of recognising which I shall continue to urge and the importance of timely compliance with its other engagements. At the suggestion of my Government in conjunction with that of France, a change has been made in the Khedive of Egypt, misgovernment having necessitated this step. A treaty has been concluded with Yakob Khan which has happily terminated the war his predecessor compelled my undertaking. Friendly relations are thereby established. Guarantees for peace and safety have been given, and the frontiers of my Indian Empire strengthened. The ability of my Commanders and the gallantry and endurance of my troops deserved well the thanks of my country and Parliament. My acknowledgments are especially due to many native princes of India and I recognise the zealous co-operation, attachment and good will of my Indian Empire. I trust that the recent decisive success gained by my army in Zululand may lead to an early conclusion of peace in South Africa on an enduring basis, and that my subjects, relieved of danger, may readily join in arrangements to secure their future safety and prosperity."

The speech then reviews the different measures brought forward during the session. No mention is made of the Greek question.

Simla, August 14.—The treaty concluded in December between Great Britain and Portugal with reference to their possessions in India was finally ratified on the 6th instant. Telegraphic communication with Mandarlay is now restored.

Bombay, August 18.—A special telegram to the Times of India states that arrangements are in progress for making Kurrachee a port of embarkation and debarkation.

A troopship with the 17th Lancashire and the first Dragoon Guards will come to India direct from Natal.

It is reported that Sir Bartle Frere recommends a force in India for service at Cape Colony. The matter is under discussion by the Government of India at the instance of the Colonial Office, but it is believed that the project will be abandoned in account of expense.

Alexandria, August 18.—The Egyptian Ministry has resigned, and a new Ministry under the presidency of the Khedive has been formed.

London, Aug. 18.—Advices from St. Petersburg state that a great seizure of gunpowder and other explosives has been made here. Safvet Pasha has been appointed third Commissioner in the settlement of the Greek frontier question.

Chaman, August 12.—The 5-11th R. A. and a wing of the Ghorakhas passed here two days ago en route to Quetta, as cholera has broken out at Gulistan Karez, their original destination. The Royal Horse Artillery and a wing of the 50th go to Aramb Karez. Each of these parties had cases of cholera; one Ghorakha and one man of the Artillery died here. The D-2 started from Kandahar yesterday. A fresh outbreak is also reported at Kandahar, chiefly amongst the 60th. The Pishan cantonments are to be at Ali as soon as the column can be formed. Rumour here says it will go by the Thrall-Chandani route. General Stewart is expected at Quetta on the 24th. The weather at Kandahar is very warm.

The Bombay Gazette publishes a special telegram from London stating that the German Government, in conjunction with America, proposes adopting a bi-metallic standard.

London, Aug. 19.—The amount of subscription for the Isthmus of Panama Canal being insufficient, the sums already subscribed have been returned.

General Garibaldi is very ill.

London, Aug. 20.—Mr Gladstone, speaking at a Liberal demonstration yesterday at Chester, which was the opening of the electoral campaign, vehemently denounced the foreign policy of the Government, which he believed will be the Liberal watchword at the forthcoming elections.

Sir Charles Dilke, at Chelsea, minutely criticised the foreign policy of the Government, and said he believed the Government only maintained its position because it contrived to spread a notion that it was mindful of the dignity of England.

A Royal warrant has been issued for establishing a reserve of officers for Army Service Corps.

Consols 97½.

Aden, Aug. 20.—The Gwalior, with the mails of 8th instant, sailed for Bombay at 12 noon to-day.

THE HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK COMPANY, LIMITED.

ORDINARY HALF YEARLY MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS.

An ordinary half yearly meeting of the above company was held this afternoon at the offices of the company, Club Chambers, when there were present:—The Hon. W. Keewick, who presided, and Messrs H. Hopplins, A. Melver, C. D. Bottomley, directors, and the following shareholders: Messrs R. Deacon, H. Smith, J. Robinson, J. K. Davis, McCulloch, Legge, W. K. Hughes, J. A. dos Remedios, A. E. Vacher, T. J. Rose, R. Lyall, N. J. Ede, R. Innes, J. E. Cox, W. H. Ray, A. Newton, Foster, and G. O. Scott.

The Secretary, Mr. Gillespie, having read the advertisement convening the meeting.

The Chairman said:—Gentlemen, with your permission we shall consider the report as read. The directors have much satisfaction in meeting you here to-day and in placing before you this report, which shows that during the past year the company has been progressing favourably, that a fair profit has been acquired for the shareholders. It also indicates that notwithstanding the low prices at which the work is done, the organisation of this company is so good, and the management of our various works so perfect that still we can show a fair return on the capital invested in this Company. How long we shall still have these rates is a question that is often present to the minds of the directors. We are doing work cheaper possibly than it is done in any other part of the world. This is the result of competition; competition is a very desirable thing generally, but in this case it is a trend. In the interest of the shareholders, in the interests of the Company generally, it would give the directors great satisfaction did they see their way to an increase of these charges. I do not despair of seeing, before long, such a result. (Applause.) You are already aware from what has been stated in the public papers that the directors have bought the property known as Sand's Slip and including the MacDonald slip and the Sands' slip. The land in which the MacDonald slip stands is of considerable value; and the slip is also a valuable one although not as valuable as the other. That at the other and further West, Sand's slip, is a very valuable one; but the land there is less valuable. They will cost us $150,000, and it is proposed in course of time—all the preliminaries of the sale have just been completed, and the directors have a good many points yet to settle—the intention is to remove one of the slips, the better one of the two, to Kowloon, where we have a splendid property, with plenty of room, abundance of water and every convenience. The cost of working the slip there would be little, and we would be enabled to deal at lower rates than we have yet been able to come to. (Applause.) I should mention that the terms of payment have been made easy; we are not to find the whole money at once. $75,000 of one half will be paid in cash—not immediately, but a portion immediately and a proportion later on; I have not got the particular dates—and the remaining portion will be allowed to remain over for a period of years, at our convenience, at 8 per cent, and that will enable us to dispose of such portions of the property as it may be judicious not to hold. I think in these few remarks I have stated everything of interest in connection with the undertaking, but before putting to the meeting the motion I have to propose for the adoption of the report and accounts, I shall be happy to answer any questions any shareholder may have to ask.

[No questions.]

The Chairman: I have just been reminded by the Secretary that I have omitted to state that we have good views in prospect of disposing of the slip which we do not require. I have said we will take the better one to Kowloon. We have very little doubt of being able to dispose of the one we do not require.

Mr Deacon: I have very much pleasure in seconding the adoption of the report. I think the shareholders are to be congratulated and the directors are to be thanked for having purchased the property. (Applause.)

The Chairman said this terminated the general business of the meeting; the warrants for the dividend, which were all ready to be signed, would be ready in two days.

Mr W. Legge proposed a vote of thanks to the Secretary, Mr. Gillespie, for the very able and successful way in which he had carried out the business of the company.

The shareholders were, he thought, very much indebted to him for his care and attention and the successful result of his efforts.

Mr MacCulloch seconded the motion.

The Chairman said:—In putting this resolution to the meeting I beg to say that the Directors feel very great satisfaction that you have proposed this vote of thanks. It is only the Directors who can appreciate the amount of hard work of the Secretary, and know how far the success of the Company is due to his vigorous efforts, which, even in illness, have not for a moment been slackened; and how much we are indebted to him for the way in which he has managed the reserve fund.

Mr Gillespie thanked the shareholders very heartily for the vote of thanks, and said he appreciated their good wishes.

There was no other business.

FATAL FALL FROM A WINDOW.

INQUEST.

An inquest was held this afternoon, at the Government Civil Hospital, on the body of a man named Masako.—O. V. Creagh, Esq., as Coroner; Messrs A. McCollmont, W. Dunman and E. P. Campos forming the jury.

Dr. Wharry stated that deceased was brought to the hospital on the 1st instant, suffering from concussion of the brain, from which he died yesterday morning. The conclusion might have been the result of a fall.

Tau Atsol, the deceased's concubine, stated that he was formerly a fireman of the S. S. China, but had left that ship some time ago. On the 1st inst., witness saw deceased sitting on a window sill in the house where she lived. This window was about fifty feet from the street below. He was then taken to the hospital; she never saw him alive after yesterday morning.

Further evidence of the accident was given, and nothing suspicious respecting the man's death being brought forward, the Jury gave a verdict of—"Accidental Death."

THE $17,000 CONSPIRACY CASE.

REGINA (WONG MING LEONG) v. CHUN SHUN YEE AND OTHERS.

In this case Chun Shun Yee, Tam Yew Tong, are charged with two others not now before the Court, namely Ho Chui Tin, and Chu Fan, with conspiring to cheat and defraud the complainant by inducing, by false pretences, his son, a youth of 19 years of age, to sign a promissory note in favour of the first prisoner for $17,000.

Mr Haylar, instructed by Mr Brereton, appeared for the prosecution; and Mr H. L. Denny for the first prisoner, and Mr Ng Achoy for the second.

The case has already occupied the Court for the greater part of two days, having been up on the 23rd and the 30th.

Wong Kwok Chun, the youth who granted the promissory note from which these proceedings arise, and who was examined at great length last day, was now recalled and proved two duplicates and one letter which were put in.

Re-examined by Mr Haylar:—I did not go before the Specification Board in Canton and I was not examined by them. The seven large American guns were never inspected. I cannot say what the following passage in the despatch means. "The seven large American guns are found on examination, &c." I don't know anything about the dispatches. I only know that I was not allowed to send arms to the Government. I first saw the papers which have been put in about the beginning of July.

Ho Chui Tin told me to call myself Wong On. The only arms I made any contract about were to cost $7000; the $13,600 was all to be expended on the guns and their conveyance, the $17,000 included the 20 per cent. commission. I have said that up to the 28th February I intended to pay the $17,000. I was to pay the debt when I became a mandarin. Ho Chui Tin is now in Canton.

By His Worship:—When I deposited the promissory note for $18,000 with the second defendant he first said he would give me the $3,600 remaining after the $10,000 had been deducted for the arms, in cash, but afterwards he said that would pay for the other expenses. The two defendants were present when Ho Chui Tin told me to sign my name as "Wong On," and they overheard the conversation. I understood I was to pay the $17,000 when I became a mandarin and the defendants understood the same thing. I had no notion what office was to be given me. The note was to be paid in two months. If I had got my warrant it would have given preference to more than one person, and I would have been able to sell it. This was all arranged at the Club, when we were talking over the $17,000. When the second defendant was introduced to me in the boarding house of the Club, I gave my name as Wong Lan Shan. When I signed the agreement as Wong On neither of the defendants said anything about it; they both knew that I did not sign my proper name.

His Worship: How did the defendants know you had not signed your proper name?

Witness: Because, when I was introduced to them they heard me called by another name. Defendants did not see, so far as I know, documents relating to my appointment previous to advancing the money, nor they did know how I was to repay the loan.

Chung Wong Tin, examined by Mr Haylar stated:—I am a general broker in 43 Lower Lascar Row. I have known the first defendant for several years as a trader. I became acquainted with the second defendant on the 10th month last year. I heard that he kept a gun-shop. I also know Ho Chui Tin and became acquainted with him about the same time. I first knew the second defendant.

Wong Kwok Chun was also an acquaintance of mine. I was in the Yan San Club on the 8th day of the 10th moon, (Nov. 2) last year with the persons above named. I am a member of the Club, and was there on that occasion of my own accord. (Note shown to witness) That is my signature, a witness to the signature of Wong Kwok Chun. The first defendant asked me to witness the signature for the delivery of money and offered me some commission. I told the first defendant that I did not care for the commission; he then said:—"If you do not sign the document the truth of it may be impugned." The document was signed by Wong On. I had not seen him before so did not know if he signed his proper name. I heard some conversation between the parties about the promissory note, but do not know what it was, nor do I know how the note was signed—"Wong On." After the note for $17,000 was given, a note for $13,600 was signed by the first defendant and given to Wong Kwok Chun. All the parties mentioned were present at that time. I saw no money pass. I asked Wong Kwok Chun why no money changed hands; he answered, it was simply for buying guns and the $3,400 was to go to the first defendant, as commission. I heard that the $17,000 note was to be met when "Wong On" presented the guns to the Chinese Government and received his warrant. I have never received any commission. I gave my signature because I was to get a share of the $3,400. There was no amount fixed as the sum I was to receive as commission. I told defendant that when he got the money, he would pay my debt. The first defendant then owed me $1,400.

Cross-examined by Mr Denny:—I also witnessed the second promissory note (paper shown witness). This is a correct copy of that note, which was for $13,600. The name of "Wong On" is mentioned in the note. I have received letters from the last witness, Wong Kwok Chun, (letter marked A I shown to witness). I received this from him, it is signed "Lan Shan." In it he told me that he had been taken ill and could not come here at that time. It also has in it the words:—"Although the money I borrowed from you is overdue I shall come down soon and arrange about the debt." Letter marked B also came from the same party, signed "Wong On." Letter C is signed "Lan Shan," and refers to the two letters already mentioned and repeats an intention of coming down to settle the debt. At the time the promissory note was witnessed I knew no money was to pass between Wong On and Chun Shun Yee. I also know that the note for $13,600 would be taken by the second defendant as money and was to be used for the purchase of guns. Wong On clearly understood that the note for the $17,000 was to be paid two months after date I also understood the same, the money was to be paid by Wong On. The latter was to retain, out of that sum, $3,400 as commission. The only terms I made with him were that he should pay me the money $1,400 that he owed me, if he got the $3,400. I thought him an honest man and that he would pay his bankrupt debts if he got the money, though not legally bound to do so. It is not customary to pay heavy commission when one man secures another, but that might be done by special agreement; I do not know whether the last witness is Wong On or not, but that is the name he signed on the note.

Cross-examined by Mr Ng Achoy:—I never saw Ho Chui Tin until the 10th month of last year; there were five persons besides myself in the Club on the day the promissory note was signed. I am quite sure the second defendant was present. This was about noon. The first defendant came shortly afterwards in company with Ho Chui Tin. There was a conversation amongst them before the notes were signed. I was asked by the first defendant to sign them as a witness. That was the first I had heard of the transaction; I did not hear the second defendant say anything while the notes were being signed, the one for $17,000 was the first one signed. After the two notes were signed the whole of the party left the Club. I did not go with them. The note for $17,000 was given over to Chun Shun Yee by Lan Shan who received in exchange the note for $13,600.

To Mr Ng Achoy:—I can swear positively that Lan Shan gave the note for $13,600 to the second defendant.

The further hearing of the case was adjourned till Friday at 10.30.

(Before the Hon. C. B. Plunket.)

A HUNGRY COOGL.

Teo Awa, a street coolie, was charged with stealing four cakes.

Defendant admitted the charge and said he was suffering from fever and could not work. He has been ten years in the Colony as a street coolie.

His Worship sent him to gaol for fourteen days.

INTERFERING JOBS FINDING.

Chan Achin, a tailor, for pushing people about and behaving rudely at the exhibition at the Man Mo Temple, last evening, was sent to gaol for fourteen days with hard labor.

A THIEF.

Chu Achol, for stealing a chopper and ladle, having a previous conviction against him, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment with hard labor.

FEVER OR DRINK.

Thomas Le Masnair, a French carpenter, was found by P. C. 649, Jung Bahadur, leaning against the railing of a house in D'Agular Street, in an incapable condition. The constable woke him and asked him where he wanted to go to; defendant said, "Take me to the Police Station." Defendant was unable to walk and was put in a chair and taken to the Station.

Defendant stated that he was not drunk, that he was merely suffering from fever, and has been lodging at the Temperance Hall.

Inspector Grey gave evidence to the effect that defendant was drunk when brought to the station, and commenced singing when put in the cell. His Worship imposed a fine of $1 and to pay ten cents chair hire.

STEALING FOWLS.

Moor Bux, a Calcutta man, admitted stealing two fowls, the property of Yung Kau Mui, a married woman, and pleaded in extenuation that he was hungry.

Defendant is a servant of the proprietors of the menagerie, and feeds the bears. He gets 16 Rupees a month, wages.

His Worship fined him $5, $1 to go to the owner of the fowls as amends, in default of payment fourteen days in gaol.

GAMING.

Yan a Kiu, Chung a Wai, Mak a Yik, Leung a Tung, Chan a Cheung, and Young a Yam, were arrested in a gambling house in Market Street, playing at fan-tan; about eight others were gambling in the house, but managed to escape.

The offence was proved by Inspector Oradcock, and defendants were fined $5 each, in default of payment fourteen days' with hard labor.

ROBBERY FROM THE PERSON.

Chauk A Yan, remanded from the 28th ultimo, on a charge of robbery from the person of a married woman a pair of silver earrings, one pair of bangles and one silver hair-pin, and also with assaulting the complainant, was again brought up.

Defendant stated that he was the paragon of the complainant; that they met on the 27th ultimo; as he had no money, she caught him by the jacket, when he bit her on the hand to make her loosen her hold. He denied that the hair-pin was found on his person; this, however, was proved by the P. C. to have been found on him.

Prisoner was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor.

JOSE PATER BONFIRE.

Cheung Wal Lung, for making a bonfire of Jose paper on the street, was fined $5. Li Mun Hing, for a similar offence, was fined $2.

Australian News.

QUEENSLAND.

Advices from New Guinea received at Cooktown, August 4th, state that the visits of H.M.S. Whorens and Beagle to Brooker Island are said to have had a good moral effect upon the natives.

The Assembly, August 1st, rejected the bill which proposed to encourage the export of meat by a bonus raised by a tax on stock.

The man-of-war schooner Beagle, arrived at Thursday Island from New Guinea, on the 3rd, reports that the mission steamer Ellengowan, was attacked by the natives of Clondy Bay, New Guinea. The Revs. Chalmers and Beawick and a party went ashore from the mission steamer Ellengowan at Port Duffield, to recover some bars of iron which had been stolen from the mission steamer on the previous night. The natives attempted to surround them, and on commencing to retreat, the party were attacked with spears and stones. Captain Duffield fired a number of shots, killing one of the foremost assailants. The party escaped to the boat in the disorder which followed. When attacked Mr Chalmers forbade the men firing, but the escape of the party is attributed to Captain Duffield's prompt action. The schooner Beagle afterwards visited Port Duffield, and recovered the stolen property. She will proceed to Clondy Bay to punish the murderers of Chalmers and his mate, and, if the murderers are not surrendered, it is intended to burn all the villages and destroy the plantations in the neighbourhood.

Fever has been very bad at New Guinea this season.

The Brisbane Courier, August 8th, publishes a long letter from the Rev. Mr Macfarlane, defending the operations of the London Missionary Society in New Guinea. A leader reviewing the letter reiterates a former opinion expressed by the Courier that zeal is misdirected which requires such a sacrifice of life as is involved in the labours of native teachers, and suggests that it would be much better to induce a few New Guinea natives to emigrate to the Loyalty Group, where they might be instructed, and then return to their own people and disseminate the instruction.

The Brisbane Exhibition closed on Saturday evening, (2nd), when the prizes won during the matches held by the Rifle Association were handed over by Miss Kennedy.

The total cash receipts for entrance at the Exhibition gates during the week amounted to £1094, exclusive of season tickets and miscellaneous receipts, which brought the amount up to £1300. The amount would have been much larger but for the wet weather. The total number of visitors passing through the turnstiles was 24,000, and on the whole the Exhibition was a great success, and will leave a good balance after paying expenses. The work of packing the exhibits for Sydney will be commenced immediately.

VICTORIA.

The amalgamation of the Australian and European Banks with the Commercial Bank is amicably settled. The liquidation of the Provincial and Suburban Bank is proceeding satisfactorily.

A new woollen factory is being established at Penridge. When the machinery is completed it will be able to manufacture 10,000 blankets yearly, as well as most of the prisoners' clothing.

All the new silver coin has been issued by the Mint, and a fresh supply of £50,000 worth is expected in October.

The amended agricultural statistics have been issued. They give the decrease in wheat at 957,520 bushels, instead of 1,302,792 bushels as previously reported. They also show that there is an increase in oats and barley.

A Board has been appointed to consider the best means of developing the resources of the colony.

Nearly all the trades find fault with the tariff, and the Government supporters are by no means satisfied with it. Several manufacturers have supported the increased protective duties.

Judge Bindon has died this month. He was called to the Irish bar in 1838.

It appears that the Kellys cost the country an extra £20,000 for police protection.

Considerable progress has been made with the Exhibition building. All the brickwork is done, and a large portion of the plaster on the exterior is finished. A better opportunity is now afforded of seeing the dimensions of the structure.

At a meeting of the Unemployed Board, evidence has been given that trade was never so dull as at present.

The new contract between the Peninsular and Oriental Company and the Government was signed on Saturday (2nd) by the Postmaster-General and Mr Kendall, the company's agent. It provides for a fortnightly service between Melbourne and Galle, or the colonies, for a period of eight years from February next. Although only running from Ceylon to Melbourne, under the contract, the company intend, during the busy season, to make several through trips in every year between London and Melbourne, via the Suez Canal. It is estimated that, under the new arrangement, a considerable profit will be shown by the Post Office Department in working the ocean mail service, instead of the deficiency which has hitherto accompanied the carrying out of this service under former contracts.

The Budget debate is not yet concluded. The Chinese residents have issued a circular asking that the additional duty on rice be not imposed. The circular points out that the Chinese residents of Victoria are estimated at from 12,000 to 13,000, and that they are taxed at £2 18s. per head on rice and opium.

Peter Davis is dead. The present generation knows but little of Peter Davis, but twenty-two years ago he was Mayor, and he distinguished his year of office by closing nearly half the public-houses in Melbourne. He did good, but he got very much hated for his zeal, and as a matter of course, when his term of office expired as city councillor, he was not re-elected, for at that time the hotel proprietors influence was very great, and determined a good many social questions. For some years Mr Davis has been little heard of. He has lived in retirement, and his death has revived particulars which were nearly forgotten.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

In our last summary we published the resolutions which were proposed in each branch of the Legislature, respecting the Constitutional position of the Legislative Council, (see China Mail, 18th ult.) Mr Dockers' resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Council, and Sir Henry Parke's resolutions affirmed by the Assembly on division by 25 votes to 13.

Parliament was prorogued on the 24th ultimo, to the 20th of August. The Governor reviewed the Session and with regard to finances said:—"Considering the general depression in Great Britain and throughout the world, which has, as a consequence, extended to the Australian colonies, the revenue has been sustained in a manner which is a gratifying evidence of the permanency of our resources."

The Government have determined to ease the expected pressure in the labour market by pushing forward some of the large public undertakings which have been in abeyance.

The official landing of His Excellency Lord Augustus Loftus took place on the morning of the 4th. The concourse spread along the quay and streets to the number of about 10,000 people. His Excellency, on arrival, was presented with an address of welcome from the Mayor and Aldermen of the city. In reply, His Excellency thanked the Mayor and Corporation for their kind address and friendly greetings, which he said, he interpreted as an expression of loyalty and attachment to the Queen. His Excellency assured them that during his residence in the colony it would be his constant aim to further the prosperity and welfare of Sydney, and to develop the commercial and industrial interests of the colony, in doing which he should feel that he was carrying out the wishes of Her Majesty the Queen, who, in her tender solicitude, watched over the happiness and welfare of all her subjects in all parts of her extended empire.—His Excellency's eldest son, who is to fill the office of Private Secretary, is still in England, and will accompany Lady Augustus Loftus to the colony. In the meantime the duties of Private Secretary will be performed by Mr Reginald Bloxome, who was Private Secretary to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor Sir Alfred Stephen.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

The Governor's speech, at the opening of the Legislative Council, disclosed rather an unsatisfactory condition of the colony's finances. The deficit amounts to £26,000. It is proposed to increase the revenue next year by a stamp duty.

The Northampton railway is officially declared open for traffic.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

A crowded meeting was held at the Town Hall on the 7th, in reference to Mr Fraser's motion for opening the South Australian Institute and Museum on Sundays. Mr W. Everard, one of the Board governors of the South Australian Institute, moved that they be opened; and the Rev. S. Eloum, bishop's chaplain, seconded the motion. Father Prendergast and others supported the motion, which was carried by an overwhelming majority. An amendment was moved, but was lost.

In the Assembly, on the 7th, in answer to a question, the Government stated it was not their intention to place the sum of £100 on the Supplementary Estimates for a Queen's Plate.

The prospectus of a Diamond Company has been issued.
